Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

On August 30, 2011, Brunswick Corporation (“Brunswick”) sold its equity interest in Sealine International Limited, the entity that holds its Sealine brand of boats, based in Kidderminster, United Kingdom, to The Oxford Investment Group, Inc. Brunswick expects that it will incur a pretax loss and resulting charge on the loss in connection with the sale of this business. Brunswick is unable at this time to make an estimate of the amount, or range of amounts, of the resulting charge.

The news release announcing this action is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

BRUNSWICK SELLS SEALINE TO INVESTMENT GROUP

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 31, 2011 – Brunswick Corporation (NYSE: BC) today announced that it has sold its Sealine brand of boats, based in Kidderminster, UK, to The Oxford Investment Group. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed. The Company is currently determining the amount of the restructuring charge associated with the transaction.

“This decision was part of our strategic review to further refine our product portfolio and to best concentrate our resources on our continuing brands and the marine segments in which we compete,” said Brunswick Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Dustan E. McCoy. “A primary goal at Brunswick going forward is to better exploit our opportunities for organic growth and to gain share in the marketplace. For the past several years, we have been steadily transforming our operating model and business structure to be more consistent with the changing marine market. With the global presence of Sea Ray, Bayliner, Meridian, Hatteras and Boston Whaler, as well as our involvement in regional brands around the globe, Brunswick maintains its leading presence in the world’s marine markets.”
